RULES OF COURT

Promulgated: November 6, 2007

Rule 23

Recognition of Foreign Judgments

Judgments of courts of competent jurisdiction of other sovereigns shall be afforded full credit and effect by the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Court in accordance with generally accepted principles of comity, as enunciated in the case of Hilton v. Guyot, 159 U.S. 113 (1895). Such judgments shall, requisite to their enforcement, be docketed as judgments of this Court on proper application and notice to affected parties, by order of this Court.

However, to the extent that a foreign sovereign places limitations on the enforcement of judgments of this Court, those limitations shall apply reciprocally to the enforcement of the judgments of that sovereign by this Court.
